Women's Rights Action Group

Isaiah House Tour: June 3rd

Next Group Opportunity This Saturday at 11:30am

About 12 people will take the 45 minute tour of the facility at 316 S. Cypress Ave., Santa Ana. We will learn about the services they offer to the women living there and identify a service project we may be able to provide in the future. If interested, please join us for lunch and discussion afterwards. Please contact Sheryl Hagen at sherylhagen@earthlink.net to carpool or if you will drive yourself. Parking is limited.

OPPORTUNITY TO HOST MOVIE SCREENING: THE IF PROJECT

"In 2008, Seattle police officer Kim Bogucki walked through the gates of the Washington Corrections Center for Women. . . On that day, Bogucki asked the mothers a critical question: "If there was something someone could have said or done that would have changed the path that led you here, what would it have been?". . . The "IF" Project is a feature length documentary that follows this extraordinary police officer and 4 of the women through their journey as they are released, reunited with their families and faced with life on the outside."

We are currently researching the potential to cohost this film with the Mission Viejo Library. If you have other suggestions, please contact Karen. Watch the trailer: <http://www.theifprojectmovie.com/#10>
